

LIFTING THE SHADOW OF WW1

100 years

& PROSPECTS FOR PEACE TODAY

Two one-day events explore lessons from the past and alternative ways to resolve conflict and promote peace today.

Conference: 6th October 2018

Interactive workshops: 17th November 2018

FRIARGATE QUAKER MEETING HOUSE

FRIARGATE, YORK, YO1 9RL

A Quaker contribution to York's commemoration of the end of WW1

York Area Quaker Meeting Charity 1133306 Company 6861684

1918 - 2018

Lifting the shadow
of the First World War

Saturday November 17th 2018

PEACE NOW: THE PERSONAL DIMENSION

9.45am Registration and refreshments

Foyer

Participants choose one morning and one afternoon workshop.

Each speaker will introduce a different way to reduce conflict and build peace and lead the group in activities which illustrate this.

10.15am - 12.30pm: Choice of workshop

1) Non-violent communication with Roswitha Jarman

Backhouse

Roswitha will use her international experience with the Alternatives to Violence Project to demonstrate how we can use language with care to promote clear and honest communication.

2) Listening for a New World with James McCarthy

Fox

Coming from a background in social work, James will demonstrate how listening skills promote confidence, understanding and change

12.45pm Lunch (included in fee)

Fox & Foyer

1.45pm - 4.00pm: Choice of workshop

3) Conflict resolution with younger people

Backhouse

With Lydia Noor and Gillian Darton

Lydia, a psychotherapist, and Gillian, a pastoral care worker, will demonstrate how 'Philosophy for Children' can promote peaceful dialogue in schools.

4) Being Peace with Lynda Williams

Gather in Foyer/Penn from 2pm

Lynda uses her extensive experience in mediation to show how we can stay grounded and centred in chaotic situations.

4.00pm - 4.45pm Sharing of experience from the workshops and discussion of ways forward, with refreshments.

Penn

Hot & cold drinks are available throughout the day in the Foyer – please help yourself.

Toilets, including mobility accessible, are near the main entrance and on the lower floor.

Lift access is available to upper and lower floors.

17 NOVEMBER 2018 - PROSPECTS FOR PEACE TODAY

Book in person at Friargate Meeting House or

Electronic version of this form available from www.yorkquakers.org.uk

Email: friargate@yorkquakers.org.uk or phone: 01904 624065

Name
Address
Phone Number
Email

Please place X in boxes as required

<input type="checkbox"/>	Adult £12
<input type="checkbox"/>	Student £7

Preferred workshops

For each day please choose one morning session and one afternoon session (this is not final but will help us to plan room allocation)

MORNING

<input type="checkbox"/>	1) Nonviolent communication
<input type="checkbox"/>	2) Listening for a new world

AFTERNOON

<input type="checkbox"/>	3) Conflict resolution in schools
<input type="checkbox"/>	4) Being Peace

Payment Price includes drinks and a sandwich lunch (with vegan and gluten-free options*)

*For special dietary requirements please call 01904 630055

or note here _____

<input type="checkbox"/>	I have made BACS payment of £ _____ into the Cooperative Bank sort code 08 92 50 A/C 50043460 using reference WW1 + surname
<input type="checkbox"/>	I enclose a cheque made payable to Friargate Quaker Meeting for £ _____
<input type="checkbox"/>	I have paid £ _____ cash

Send booking form to friargate@yorkquakers.org.uk or to Quaker Meeting House, Friargate, YO1 9RL

Confirmation of a place will be sent on receipt of payment.

I give my permission for the York Area Quaker Meeting to use the above personal details only in order to register me for these events and communicate with me about them.